LA SALLE COLLEGE
PHILADELPHIA, PA. 19141

February 29, 1968

Editor, FACULTY BULLETIN
La Salle College

Dear Sir:

I don't know who your news gatherers might be but I do suggest that you check out their credentials. The information about my activities as reported in your issue of Feb. 26th is entirely wrong. Either some other member of the Faculty appeared at this meeting or your informant is playing some practical joke. I did not speak on "Educating Your Children About Sex", I did not speak to mothers with children in the "Get Set" Program, I did not speak at the Parkside YMCA on Jan. 18.

Sincerely,

Austin Dondero, FSC

March 5, 1968

Brother Austin Dondero, F.S.C.
Associate Professor, Psychology
La Salle College

Dear Brother Austin,

Please excuse the errors in the February Faculty Bulletin.

On my original copy, an item pertaining to your Keynote Address for the Graymoor Friars was listed immediately before items dealing with various talks made by Dr. Joseph Kovatch.

Apparently when the material was re-typed on stencil, the line with your name was picked up but the next two lines were inadvertently skipped, resulting in your name being attributed to the talks delivered by Dr. Kovatch.

I sincerely regret any embarrassment that you may have suffered because of this oversight. Please be assured that a correction will be made in the March Faculty Bulletin.

Sincerely,

Robert S. Lyons, Jr.
Assistant Director
Editor, Faculty Bulletin

PSYCHOLOGY

CARROLL GRANTED Ph.D.

Jerome F. X. Carroll, Assistant Professor of Psychology, has been granted his Ph.D. degree in Counseling Psychology. Dr. Carroll's dissertation research dealt with an investigation of the relationship between the attitudes expressed by adoptive applicants toward adoption and the mental status of the applicants.

On Feb. 8 and 15, Dr. Carroll delivered a paper, "Understanding Adolescent Needs," to an Archdiocesan Workshop for counselors and guidance personnel working in the Catholic secondary school system.
